BOOK SECTION MEETS NOV. 11
 A meeting of the Torrance Women's Club book section will be held at the clubhouse, at half past seven on the evening of Monday, Nov. 11.

Mrs. E. L. Patterson, chairman, announces that Rev. R. A. Young, pastor of the Methodist Church, will speak on current events, and that Mrs. Robert M. Frick, of the Redondo Beach Woman's Club, will review the works of an American author.

Mrs. Patterson wishes to make it understood that these meetings, which will be held on the second Monday of each month, are not for Women's Club members only, but that everyone is urged to attend.

ATTRACTIVE BRIDGE LUNCHEON
 Mrs. H. E. Corwin entertained her bridge club with an attractive bridge luncheon Wednesday of last week at her home on Acadia avenue.

Halloween appointments adorned the luncheon tables, at which places were marked by clever pumpkin combination place cards and tallies. Large baskets of African marigolds and chrysanthemums formed the floral note in the decorative theme.

Honors for the high score were awarded to Mrs. L. A. Wellenman of San Pedro and second to Mrs. Al. Heller of Long Beach.

WILL ENTERTAIN THIMBLE CLUB
 Mrs. Robert Lewellen will entertain the Helping Hand Thimble club at all day sewing at her home on Madrid avenue tomorrow.

GILBERT-NICKERSON VOWS SAID IN CHURCH
 Culminating a romance of four years, Miss Winifred Beatrice Nickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nickerson, and Mr. Francis Billings Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Gilbert, were quietly married at the Central Evangelical church at 8 o'clock last Friday

A. Kelly, club guest for the day, took consolation.
 Places were marked for Mrs. Paul Vonderahe, Mrs. Charles Vonderahe, Mrs. Walter Schlick, Mrs. Waldo Darnell, Mrs. Louis Smith, Mrs. C. L. Ingold, Mrs. W. J. Neff, Mrs. Dewey Quigley, Mrs. Max Robinson, Mrs. G. A. Kelly, and the hostesses, Mrs. R. F. Bishop and Mrs. William Scott.

TAKE COSTUME PRIZE AT EL SEGUNDO
 Mrs. L. A. Kent, of Torrance, was awarded ladies' first prize, a dozen pink Fostoria sherbet glasses, for the best costume worn in the annual Halloween festival held at El Segundo on Thursday night of last week.

Mrs. Kent wore a beautiful Indian costume, ornamented with a dozen feathers, and her Sunitan complexion and the characteristic dignity with which she portrayed her part made her the unanimous choice of the judges.

Mrs. Kent with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McMullen had gone to El Segundo to attend a party at the home of Chas. Robinson but when they arrived at El Segundo and found that a carnival was in progress Mrs. Kent and Mrs. McMullen joined in the parade. Both of the ladies' costumes were made by Mrs. Kent.

CHOIR ENTERTAINED AT HOGUE HOME
 Members of the Methodist choir and their husbands and wives were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hogue Halloween night with a party.

Amusing games occupied the greater part of the evening, at the close of which refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, dressed as a Spanish couple, entertained with songs, and Mrs. Smith gave recitations. Mrs. R. A. Young also recited some appropriate numbers.

Mrs. Hogue was assisted during the evening by Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, Mrs. R. A. Young and Mrs. Roy Kistner.

Invited were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Guy, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mowry, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hall, Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Budge, Mr. and Mrs. Cheside, Mr. and Mrs. Gauthier, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Turner, Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, Mrs. L. L. Fordice, Miss Thelma Warren, William Lewis, and Dr. C. W. Allen.

DINNER AND BRIDGE AT MRS. CURTISS
 Mrs. C. N. Curtiss was a charming hostess last evening when she entertained sixteen guests at a bridge dinner at her home on Post avenue.

She was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Shinn. A turkey dinner was served and the Thanksgiving motif carried out in the decorations. Honors at bridge were awarded to Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, Don Findley, Mrs. J. W. Post and Mr. George Peckham.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Jamison, Mrs. Isabelle Henderson, Mr. Larry Shinn, Mr. J. W. Post, Mr. and Mrs. George Nell, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Whyte, Dr. J. S. Lancaster, Mrs. George Peckham, and Mrs. Florence Welch.

MATRONS OF O. E. S. MEET WITH MRS. FESS
 Over thirty members of the 1926 Matrons Association, an organization that includes matrons from Los Angeles county Eastern Star chapters, were entertained with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Fess on Arlington avenue last week.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Fess were Mable Dominguez of San Pedro, Amy Benedict of Long Beach, Sabrina Boal of Gardena, and Louise Harper of Los Angeles.

The Halloween theme was cleverly executed in both the table decorations and the luncheon menu. Following the luncheon, a short business meeting was held, at which it was announced that five women for the membership of the 1926 Matrons Association, received appointments as Grand Officers for the year of 1930.

A social afternoon was enjoyed at the close of the business meeting.

MRS. FESS GIVES HALLOWEEN LUNCHEON
 Mrs. J. H. Fess was hostess to a number of her friends Friday noon when she entertained with an attractively appointed Halloween luncheon at her home on Arlington avenue.

Places were marked for Mrs. Vena Mammil of Glendale, Mrs. Leah Shriver, Mrs. Jennie Moore, Mrs. Ruth Arzilli and the hostess, Mrs. Fess.

GO TO SAN PEDRO FOR HALLOWEEN
 Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hanlon, 1635 Cota, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hyde, 1637 Cota, were guests last Thursday evening at a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Hyde's sister, Mrs. A. W. Elliott, of San Pedro.

Mrs. Elliott's home was elaborately decorated in the Halloween colors and guests came in masquerade garb. Dancing and games were the pastimes and refreshments appropriate to the season were served.

MISS DAGOBERG WEDS ARTHUR CHAFFEE
 The Wae Kirk of the Heather in Glendale was the setting for an impressive ceremony at 8:30 Friday morning when Miss Louise Dagoberg of Torrance became the bride of Mr. Arthur A. Chaffee of San Pedro.

The bride was lovely in an ensemble of sapphire blue velvet, with hat and shoes of a matching shade. The bridal bouquet was a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Rilla H. Dagoberg, in a golden brown velvet ensemble and wearing a corsage of golden Opheila roses, was maid of honor.

Mr. Arthur W. Dagoberg, brother of the bride, served the groom as best man.

The ceremony, which was witnessed by a few close friends and relatives, was performed by Rev. Martin Luther of the San Pedro Presbyterian church.

A wedding breakfast was served at the bridal party at the Melody Lane, after which Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee left for a honeymoon at San Diego.

On their return they will reside at 1246 West 18th street, San Pedro.

The bride is a nurse at the Jared Sidney Torrance hospital and a graduate of White Memorial Hospital Nurse's school. The groom is a dental technician in San Pedro.

DRAMA CLUB HONORS MISS BUXTON
 Mrs. Willis Brooks, Mrs. Walter Schlick and Mrs. D. W. Quigley were co-hostesses to the Drama club last Thursday evening when they honored Miss Virginia Buxton with a green kitchen shower at the Brooks home on Portola avenue.

Miss Buxton's wedding to Mr. James H. Scott will be an event of this week.

Halloween motif was used throughout in the decorative scheme, and bridge was the diversion of the evening.

Participating were Miss Virginia Buxton, Mr. James H. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Danford, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vonderahe, Miss Isabel Berendsen, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schlick, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brooks and Mr. Brooks' mother, Mrs. Duffie Brooks.

COUPLE WED AT LONG BEACH
 Announcement was made recently of the marriage of Mrs. Gertrude Thompson of Torrance to Mr. Ralph Michelsen of Long Beach on October 7.

Mr. Michelsen is an employe of the Richfield Oil company at Long Beach. The couple is now residing at 812 Anapola avenue, Torrance.

DELIGHTFUL BRIDGE LUNCHEON
 Mrs. W. S. Grau was hostess at a delightful bridge luncheon at her home in Inglewood Saturday, when she entertained a number of friends from Torrance.

Luncheon tables were decorated with bowls of sweet peas in pastel shades, intermingled with baby breath.

PRE-NUPTIAL TEA FOR BRIDAL PARTY
 Mrs. C. M. Turck, grandmother of Miss Virginia Buxton, who will become the bride of Mr. James H. Scott on Saturday, November ninth, entertained the bridal party with a pre-nuptial tea at her spacious home in La Crescenta Sunday.

Guests from Torrance were Miss Buxton, Mr. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Buxton, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff.

MRS. SANDERHOFF HOSTESS AT SHOWER
 Honoring Miss Virginia Buxton, popular bride-elect, Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff entertained with a shower at her home at El Contento court Monday evening, inviting close friends of the honoree.

Guests were entertained at bridge honors being awarded to Mrs. B. C. Buxton, mother of the bride, and second to Mrs. Ray Leselle.

Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour.

Quigley, Mrs. Walter Schlick, Mrs. Charles Vonderahe, Miss Helen Kyle, Mrs. Gene Schaffer of Pomona and the hostess Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff.

FAMILY DINNER PARTY
 Celebrating the 72nd birthday of Mrs. H. W. Bartlett, relatives gathered at her home on Gramercy avenue for a family dinner, Sunday, November third.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes, Bill, Grace and Muriel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Bartlett, Mr. Grace F. Bartlett and the honoree, Mrs. H. W. Bartlett.

MARJORIE PAGE HAS BIRTHDAY
 Halloween and the eighth birthday of Marjorie Page falling on the same day, a party was given at the Page residence on Arlington avenue Thursday afternoon to celebrate the two events.

Jack of lanterns, witches and festoons of orange and black decorated the house, where games occupied the greater part of the time between 3 and 5.

A birthday cake in Halloween colors, with eight lighted candles on it, was brought in and later served to the young guests who were: Edson Wood, Gertrude Mowry, Georgia Tiffany, Coral Linderman, Elizabeth Anthony, Bobby Fordice, Laura May Hyde, Patty Post, Muriel Alverson, J. R. Atherton, Junior Fess, Joan Ryan, Ruth Taylor, Jimmy Budge, Arlys Fossom, Roseline Boyd and the hostess, Marjorie Page.
